Huntsville-Madison County Auburn Club Receives Award

The Huntsville-Madison County Auburn Club achieved the distinction of the All Auburn – All Orange Award at the recent Auburn Club Leadership Conference held on the Auburn University campus. Parker Liles, Larissa Chastain, Katie Scruggs, and Justin South represented the Huntsville-Madison County club and were present to accept the award.

All Auburn – All Orange was presented to 12 clubs nationwide for exceeding all Auburn Club criteria, including establishing and raising funds for a scholarship endowment, communicating effectively with club members, the community, and the Auburn Alumni Association, holding successful events and meetings, and providing meaningful service to their communities.

Particular consideration was given to the Huntsville-Madison County Auburn Club's scholarship programs. Through the generous support of Auburn alumni and friends in the community, the Huntsville-Madison County Auburn Club has established an endowment with Auburn University for a scholarship honoring Brooks and Marian Moore for their many years of support of the club. Additionally, the club awarded two one-year full scholarships to incoming freshmen from Madison County: Augustine Ahn, Grissom High School, and Lauren Craft, New Hope High School. The award is based on academic excellence, community leadership, and demonstration of the "Auburn Spirit". Scholarship winners for 2010 will be named at the Huntsville-Madison County Auburn Club's annual party – their largest scholarship fundraising event – to be held Tuesday May 11th at the Davidson Center.

The Huntsville-Madison County Auburn Club is one of 98 clubs supported by the Auburn Alumni Association.
